

I AM A SENIOR

I am the end product of twelve years of extensive education.

I have tasted the sweetness of success, and choked on the bitterness of failure.

I am involved in my school.

I participate in its government and that of my class.

I am a senior.

My goals are high, and I give my all² to attain them.

I am respected, admired, and hated for breaking the lunch line.

Who am I?

I am a senior.

I uphold my reputation and that of my school's.

At school functions, I set a good example.

I have spirit.

I always yell the loudest for our teams, and support my school by supporting them.

I am concerned;

No matter how trivial or major, I always care about the decisions that are made.

I am wise, but foolish.

I am serious, yet I am carefree.

I am a senior.

I wear my ring with pride and distinction for it symbolizes my success;

It sets me apart from saying, "Look at me - I am a senior!"

I am the pride of the past and the hope of the future.

I am a representation of today's youth.

I am proud of what I am.

I AM A SENIOR!
